

English Martyrs Catholic Parish
TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SUNDAY 20TH JUNE 2021

Kindness and Wondrous Deeds

Today's Scriptures set us in the midst of a raging sea, a mighty force of nature that only the Word of God can restrain. Anyone who has witnessed the violent winds and lashing waves of a storm at sea understands the terror of the disciples and the fearful hearts of the sailors described in today's Responsorial Psalm.

In Biblical tradition, the sea – particularly its stormy side – symbolizes chaos, all that threatens peace and well-being. Such was the experience of both Job and the disciples. Job's whole life had become an uncontrollable storm, having suddenly lost both family and possessions (see chapters 1-2). And the disciples, while attracted enough to Jesus to leave all and follow him, were still perplexed by his power and perhaps troubled by the negative reactions he sometimes received (see Marl 3:21-22).

In today's Scriptures, God's power over the storm is revealed in the midst: "The Lord addressed Job out of the storm" (38:1). Jesus was in the boat with his disciples, during the storm. Like the sailors of Psalm 107, "they cried to the Lord in their distress; from their straits he rescued them." The Word of God hushes the storm and stills the sea. In the midst of the storm, Job, the sailors, and the disciples all receive at least a glimpse of who God is and experience God's "kindness and wondrous deeds".

What wisdom for us as we encounter the storms of our own lives! What seems to be chaos, to threaten our very lives, is but the setting in which the power of the Divine can be revealed. Let us not forget that the Teacher will not let us perish. The power of his Word can still our storms as well.

Parish Notice Board

Reopening of English Martyrs Hornchurch

Dear Parishioners,

I am happy to inform you that as a result of our meeting with the parish Health and Safety Team, the Church is now open for public worship on the following days: -

Sundays 10am and 12pm:

Both the 10 am and 12 pm masses are now open for People's Physical Participation. The 10am mass will also be livestreamed.

As the numbers are still restricted, kindly participate in either of the two masses so as to avoid parishioners being turned away due to overcrowding at the 10am mass which I reckon to be the more popular one.

Weekday Masses:

The weekday mass timetable is as follows:

Fridays

9.00am - Eucharistic Adoration

9.30am - Mass with People

Saturdays

9.00am – Holy Rosary

9.30am Mass of our Lady

I will be offering Private Masses from Monday to Thursday until the restrictions are totally lifted. Mass intentions are still accepted for all masses.

Kindly inform those you know, who may not be able to access emails, of the above changes.

Volunteers needed urgently

We urgently need cleaners and stewards for enabling the conducting of the church services. At the moment we are restricted by the limited number of volunteers. Kindly meet me personally after mass to express your willingness to help. We are unable to move forward without new people coming forward to serve our community.

With blessings

Fr Britto
